

§658.11 What projects and activities may a grantee conduct under this program?

The Secretary awards grants under this part to assist in carrying out projects and activities that are an integral part of a program to improve undergraduate instruction in international studies and foreign languages. These include projects such as:

(a) Planning for the development and expansion of the undergraduate curriculum in international studies and foreign languages;

(b) Teaching, research, curriculum development, and related activities such as—

(i) Conducting faculty workshops, conferences, and special lectures;

(ii) Developing and testing new curricular materials, including self-instructional materials in foreign languages, or specialized language materials dealing with a particular subject matter (such as business or law);

(iii) Initiating new and revised courses in international studies and foreign languages;

(iv) Developing ways to use the media, or developing projects to improve the effectiveness of sharing resources and materials;

(v) Developing standards to identify successful strategies for incorporating international aspects into the curriculum;

(c) Training faculty members in foreign countries or bringing foreign scholars to U.S. institutions;

(d) Placing U.S. faculty members in internships with international associations or with governmental and non-governmental organizations in the U.S. or abroad to improve their understanding of international affairs;

(e) Developing international education programs designed to develop or enhance linkages between 2- and 4-year institutions of higher education, or baccalaureate and post-baccalaureate programs or institutions;

(f) Developing undergraduate study-abroad programs in locations abroad in which these study opportunities are not otherwise available or that serve students for whom these opportunities are not otherwise available and that provide courses that are closely related to on-campus foreign language and international studies curricula;

(g) Developing an international dimension in pre- and in-service teacher training; and

(h) Combining the teaching of international studies with professional or pre-professional training.

(i) Integrating new study abroad opportunities for undergraduate students into curricula of specific degree programs.
